

UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER
ISLAMIC SOCIETY

ARABIC UNLOCKED RESOURCE BANK

CONTENTS

- ✓ Online Resources
- ✓ Courses
- ✓ Books
- ✓ Dictionaries
- ✓ Translation tools

ONLINE RESOURCES

Madinah Arabic Course

The link below contains all the resources that you need to complete the whole of the Madinah Arabic course. It includes the actual books, the English Key, and answers plus many more extra resources.

Click Here!

Madinah Arabic Book 1

- ✓ Thorough walkthrough of Madinah Arabic Book 1
- ✓ Videos are an hour-long, or longer
- ✓ Lessons from other books in the series also available
- ✓ Complete walkthrough of Madinah Arabic Book 1
- ✓ Videos are about 15 minutes long
- ✓ Lessons from other books in the series are not available

Click Here!

Click Here!

Hello Talk

An online platform that connects you with Arabic speakers to practice your Arabic. Chat with language partners through text, voice messages, voice calls and video calls. It even has built in tools for translation, pronunciation, and transliterations.

Bayyinah Institute Arabic with Husna

Join Nouman Ali Khan as he teaches his daughter the basics of Arabic grammar. In these super simple sessions, he goes through the content at a steady pace and his explanation is easy to follow. As well as the videos, you also get access to the documents that allow you to practice your skills and summarise what the lesson went through. To access this content, a subscription is required.

Bayyinah Institute Dream:

Bite Size but comprehensive videos for basic and advanced Nahw & Sarf, with workbook and textbook to facilitate learning. A subscription is required.

Arabicworkshop.com

An online tool that can be used to build your Arabic vocabulary through listening. It integrates a dictionary function that exposes the learner to words in a systematic way to maximise memory retention through context. All features are integrated to create a unique pathway of relevant and engaging content for every user.

Quizlet with vocab from the Quran

An online website that provides learning tools. Study sets such as Quranic Arabic contain vocabulary from the Quran. You can review the content via flashcards, study, and game modes!

Qurancorpu

Quranic Arabic Corpus, is an annotated linguistic resource which shows the Arabic grammar, syntax and morphology for each word in the Holy Quran. As well as this, there is a dictionary so you can see where a specific word can be found in every place in the Quran. The website provides three levels of analysis: morphological annotation, a syntactic treebank and a semantic ontology, so if that's what you're looking for, this is an excellent resource.

Quranic (app)

If you're looking for something less intensive and self-paced, try an app. Quranic has an easy and user-friendly interface and allows you to complete one free lesson every 12 hours. It's fun and engaging, and uses repetition and short activities to help you memorise. This is a good way to learn quick words and phrases that are found commonly in the Qur'an, and something to do on your phone that isn't scrolling on social media...

COURSES

arabiantongue.com

An online institute that provide 1-1 sessions with teachers from Egypt who are well qualified in the Arabic language. They cater for a wide range of abilities and provide flexibility around your schedule, They use the Bayna Yadayk syllabus which provides students with a solid grounding and fluency in the language.

UoM Leap Course - Arabic

This is a free credit module that can be taken as part of your university course; if your course doesn't offer it then you still have the option to pay and join. This is an excellent opportunity to learn Arabic without additional workload. It will also keep you accountable as it will count towards your university grade.

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

Kalimah Center

An Egyptian institute that has had over 7000 students since 2011. The curriculum is very well structured and can be moulded around your schedule, allowing you to learn from wherever and whenever. Tutoring centers for all levels and focuses on simultaneously developing the skills of listening, speaking, reading, writing and thinking in Arabic

Al-Salam Institute

The Arabic Immersion Year is tailored for students of Islamic knowledge who have progressed beyond the foundational level. The year-long course provides an immersive environment for students to improve their knowledge of Arabic grammar and morphology, as well as further develop their skills of speaking, listening, reading, and writing in the Arabic language. Students who successfully complete all modules of the Arabic Immersion Year (including written assignments and examinations) will be awarded a Diploma in Classical Arabic Language and Literature.

Arabic Intensive:

Ebrahim College has developed a unique curriculum for an Arabic Language programme that aims to enable students to be able to read, write, speak and understand Arabic in one year. The Arabic Intensive is designed for students motivated to learn Arabic in order to gain access to the Qur'an in its language, access to Islamic texts, future academic study or even for personal enrichment. The course is also perfect for anyone who intends to take a gap year from studies or a career break.

Part-time courses:

The programme incorporates modern and classical Arabic as well as grammar. It is one of the most comprehensive coverages of classical Arabic and grammar available. Students who are looking for serious and focussed study of Arabic in order to access the language of the Quran and Hadith should seriously consider completing the whole programme consisting of 9 modules. Each level comprises of 12 weeks with an assessment that takes place during the final session. The classes occur weekly, with each session being 3 hours.

Ibn Jareer Institute

Based in London and Birmingham, this institute teaches Arabic through a workshop method combining Arabic grammar with conversation in a fun and interactive way. They cater to a wide audience ranging from beginner to advanced levels. Instead of text books, you get modular bite-sized learning, and student lead content which is easy to understand. You can choose to study part-time, do a summer intensive, or study online.

Al-ibanah online

Based in Egypt, this institute runs Arabic classes for both brothers and sisters, in various topics including “Qur’anic Arabic and Grammar” and “Grammar and Morphology”. Alhamdulillah, Al Ibaanah has launched an Online Arabic Language Studies Program for those of us who can’t be there in person. They offer classes from introductory, to advanced levels and provide the option of studying in a private class, whereby students can have a schedule that works for them.

Abqa Institute

This is an institute started by a brother who is very proficient in Arabic; he has managed to learn Arabic without going abroad and is now using his experience and skills to teach brothers on zoom. There are currently limited spaces available. He is offering a few spaces for either 1-1 teaching or group classes. This is a 3+ year course and requires proper commitment.

Arabic code

A course endorsed by Ustadh Abu Taymiyyah. There are 3 course options that are catering for different objectives. Classes are available for both brothers and sisters and will take place on zoom. A schedule will be provided, lessons will be recorded and homework is given outside the lesson.

preply.com

Preply is an online language learning platform that makes it easy to find, schedule, and connect with a tutor so that you can learn a language more effectively.

lisaan.com

Strengthen your command of Arabic by building familiarity with a wide range of vocabulary and phrases, whilst also applying the rules of grammar and morphology in context, under the guidance of a teacher.

By the end of the program, students will have a solid foundation in the Arabic language and will be able to access basic Arabic literature independently.

A bespoke syllabus is provided, centred around "Qasas an-Nabiyin" (Stories of the Prophets), a book written with the beginner in mind; it starts with basic sentences and builds the student's capacity as it advances.

BOOKS

Bayna Yadayk

The structure of the chapters in the Arabiya books is well thought-out and the vocabulary is useful and practical. The exercises provided, whilst repetitive, will allow you to drill into your mind the grammatical forms of words as well as the word itself and its usage in a sentence. The book is best covered with a teacher who can guide you through it due it being written fully in Arabic (with illustrations of course).

Al Takallum

A comprehensive, modern Arabic book series with audio resources, Al Takallum has previously been awarded “best Arabic coursebook for foreigners”. The books guide you through from beginner level in a thorough and precise manner.

As an online course, Al Takallum aims to improve students’ skills in all reading, writing, listening and speaking with, or without, a teacher.

Access to Qur'anic Arabic

3 books:

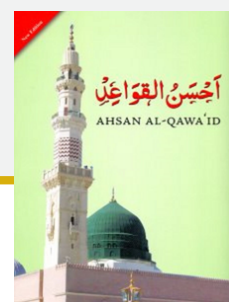

- Textbook
- Workbook
- Selections from the Quran.

The textbook introduces grammar, vocabulary and comprehension in a graded and coherent fashion, preparing the student for the high stages. It uses examples and words found frequently in the Quran. The workbook provides much needed practice in grammar, structure and meaning. The "Selections from the Quran" is a separate book with parallel translation and notes and is a very valuable part of the course. This is an excellent book for beginners or those looking to review knowledge of fundamentals of Arabic Grammar.

Ahsanul Qawaid (Azhar Academy LTD)

A book that introduces the rules and procedures relating to recognition and pronunciation of the 29 Arabic letters. Includes lessons on: different forms of joint letters, harakat, tanween, sukoon, maddah, and tashdeed.

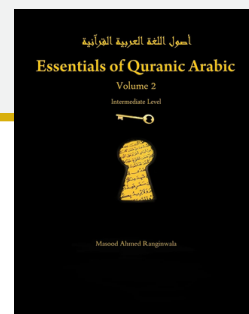

Zahratun Nahw by Yusuf Hanif Patel

A great book for students beginning the study of Arabic Syntax covering the basic rules with examples, analysis and questions.

Essentials of Quranic Arabic

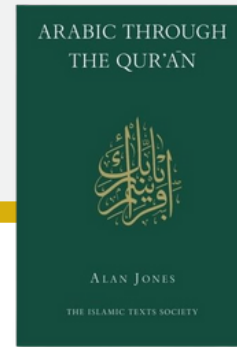

Essentials of Quranic Arabic is a two-part book series that allows the student to grasp key grammar concepts and “high-yield” Qur’anic vocabulary. Easy to read and follow, there is quite a lot of beneficial information packed in to help you engage better with the Qur’an. Purpose-built for English speakers, this is a good resource for those looking to get serious with Arabic grammar.

Safwatul Masadir

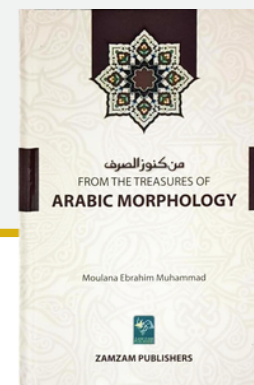

English translation of Safwatul masaadir - The cream of Arabic imperative words with modern words. A classic comprehensive book that includes verb conjugation tables.

Arabic Through the Quran

Written by Alan Jones this book comprises 40 easy-to-follow lessons that cover the important points of grammar of Quranic Arabic using only the vocabulary in the Quran. Each lesson is followed by numerous exercises for further practice and a key to the exercises is provided at the end of the book.

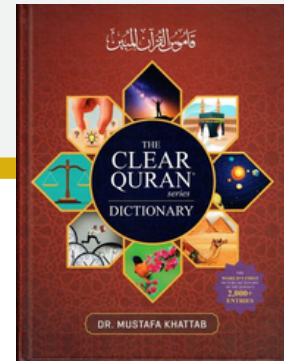

Treasures of Arabic Morphology

This book has a text-book style format whereby it lays out an explanation, examples, and exercises for the student to try. It is very clear cut and defines rules and their exceptions. It might not be the easiest to follow for beginners, but with a bit of concentration, it will prove to be very beneficial for those attempting to get a better grasp of Arabic morphology.

DICTIONARIES

Mustafa Khattab Clear dictionary

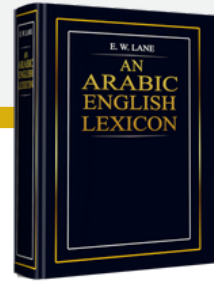

This is the first modern dictionary of the Quran to utilise visuals to explain Quranic entries featuring over 2000 images and illustrations. It highlights the connections between all derivatives of the same root . It covers the Quran's 2,092 entries including 947 verbs, 1045 nouns and 100 particles arranged by frequency and theme. A very straightforward dictionary which was produced by a qualified team of editors, led by Dr Khattab, a graduate of Al Azhar with extensive training and expertise in Islamic and Quranic studies. It is based on The Clear Quran translation approved by Al-Azhar and endorsed by the Canadian Council of Imams as well as many scholars

Quranic Terminology

A linguistic and semantic analysis. This study aims to provide a broad glossary of key Qur'anic terms and set forth these terms' meanings, both semantically and linguistically, within their Qur'anic context.

Lane's Lexicon

Lane's lexicon is a popular and comprehensive Arabic-English lexicon by Edward William Lane and consists of Arabic words defined and explained in the English language. The definitions are taken from older Arabic dictionaries, primarily mediaeval Arabic dictionaries. Lane translates these definitions into English, and he carefully notes which dictionaries are giving which definitions.

TRANSLATION TOOLS

Ejtaal.net

Allows the user to search into numerous popular dictionaries all on a single webpage in different languages including English and Arabic.

Aratools

A quick and easy tool to search up Arabic words providing detail about gender, quantity, root word and measure for words.